Why Concrete Interlocking Pavers?

- Unique material ✓
- Hard surface ✓
- Good to look at ✓
- Comfortable to walk on ✓
- Extremely durable ✓
- Easy to maintain ✓

- M2 Interlocking Pavers' performance characteristics make it suitable for the heaviest duty applications, able to support substantial loads and resist shearing and braking forces.
- M2 Interlocking Pavers are fully engineered products manufactured in the factory to give consistency and accuracy.
- Laid on a granular laying course and with an edge restraint, individual blocks interlock with each other to act together, distributing large point loads evenly.
- Concrete block paving can be used immediately after the laying procedures have been completed and requires only minimal maintenance over its long life.

Disclaimer: Colours may vary from the true product colours due to printing & photographic process
